WHAT IS IT ?

Mayor's Foundation for Youth is providing project grant awards and technical assistance for young low-income Montrealers who want to set up their own business or cultural project.

CULTURAL GRANTS: First Nations Category

As part of its program aiming to encourage the development of cultural projects among First Nations youth, the Mayor's Foundation for Youth, in partnership with the ministry Affaires municipales et de la Métropole (Municipal Affairs and Greater Montreal Ministry) and the Fonds de solidarité FTQ (Solidarity Fund), is organising competitions in partnership with organizations representing First Nations communities.

The Foundation has joined with Land InSights and KANIEN'KEHAKA ONKWAWÉN:NA RAOTITIOHKWA, the cultural centre in Kahnawake to open a category specifically aimed at young people from Canadian First Nations who live in Montreal or Kahnawake.

Aims:

- . Promote a spirit of cultural enterprise among First Nations youth living in Montreal or Kahnawake
- . Help young people of Canadian First Nations origin living in Montreal or Kahnawake carry out their culture projects
- . Promote firms with a positive social impact and outreach in their communities
- . Enable young people to achieve their potential

Contributions:

- . $5000 grant offered by Mayor's Foundation for Youth. After a social contract have been signed, the grant will be awarded in two equal payments, each amounting to a sum of $2500
- . Technical support, networking activities and counsel to grant awardees ensured by Mayor's Foundation for Youth
- . Technical support in drafting and presenting portfolios to the jury is available at Land InSights, Kanien'kehaka Onkwawén:na Raotitiohkwa and the Mayor's Foundation for Youth, for applicants whose eligibility has been established. (Mayor's Foundation for Youth will only provide orientation and advice)
- . Awards ceremony organised by Land InSights, association for the promotion of aboriginal culture

Timetable:

- . Deadline to submit your grant application: April 23rd 2004
- . Deadline to submit your portfolio: May 21st 2004
- . Awards Ceremony: June 20th 2004
